This Years Keynote...

Kelly Frager is the owner of Kelly Frager Professional Development & Training, where she helps organizations nationwide strengthen teams through customized training and professional development. With more than 30 years of experience in human resources, training, and development, she is known for her engaging style, practical insights, and expertise in relational skills and behavioral intelligence. Kelly serves on the Board of Trustees at Carroll Community College and has held leadership roles with Goodwill Industries and Penn State organizations. She earned degrees from Penn State University and Johns Hopkins University. After raising their family in Mt. Airy, MD the last 28 years, Kelly and her husband Todd recently moved to North Carolina to be closer to 2/3 of their adult kids (and future grandbabies!).
